GAMBLING AT CAMMATEEPOORA.—Yesterday, at the Girgaum Police Court, Constable Good charged Syanna Ellappa, and five others, before Mr. P. Ryan with being found gaiming in a common gaiming house at Cammateepoora 14th Street, with cards, dice, and money on Wednesday afternoon last. The whole of the accused, on admitting the truth of the complaint, were convicted, and each fined Rs. 10, with the alternative of fourteen days' rigorous imprisonment.

THE LUGGAGE CASE WITHDRAWN.—At the Esplanade Police Court yesterday, the case in which Mr. Allen Turner sought to recover some property on behalf of a lady, from the proprieter of the Victoria Hotel, was yesterday withdrawn. Mr. Turner appeared on behalf of his client, stating that the defendant was willing to give up the boxes which he had retained. He stated that his client denied all liability in the matter. The defendants were, it appeared, confident that they could recover their money from another source.

CITY NUISANCES.—Mr. Leisk yesterday placed a man named Babajee Bairoo before the Chief Presidency Magistrate, charging him with having committed a breach of the Municipal laws, in having neglected to comply with the sanitary regulation. He was fined Rs. 20.—Two other men, sub-contractors, were also placed before his Worship. They had created a nuisance to the inhabitants of the surrounding houses, by allowing their buffaloes to be herded in too close proximity to the dwellings of the complainants. A quantity of dung and other objectionable refuse had been left lying about and in such a way as to be liable to cause sickness. Two Parsees, the occupants of houses near by, gave evidence, upon which the accused were convicted and ordered to pay a fine of Rs. 25 each, his Worship warning them that should they be again brought before him upon this or a similar charge they would be dealt with much more severity.

A DATE-SELLER ROUGHLY HANDLED.—At the Esplanade Police Court yesterday, Police Constable McCormack, placed a man named Cassim, before Mr. Cooper, charged with having caused grievous hurt to one Sheik Ebraim Sheik Moodran. The offence was, it seemed, committed on account of a difference which the two men had on account of some evidence which the complainant had given in a case in which the accused had been interested. Sheik Ebraim is a date-seller, and he stated that as he was carrying on his trade, about 8-30 p.m. on Wednesday Cassim came up from behind, and struck him on the head with a stick knocking him insensible. He remembered nothing more until the police came to him for enquiries. Witnesses were called to corroborate his statement, and the accused was convicted, being ordered to pay a fine of Rs. 15, or in default, to undergo fourteen days' rigorous imprisonment.

SAD DEATH IN THE DESAIJI'S FAMILY OF BHOWNUGGER.—We are sorry to hear of the sad and untimely death of Mrs. Shankarprasad Hariprasad Desai which melancholy event took place at Bhownugger on Monday morning. Mrs. Hariprasad Desai, who was one of the stall-holders in Lady Reay's Fancy Fair, was unavoidably absent, and her absence was regretted by a large circle of friends. Mrs. Hariprasad's interest in the Countess of Dufferin's Fund and Lady Reay's Fancy Fair is well-known. H. E. Lady Reay was also very sorry to hear of the sad accident. Mr. Hariprasad Santukram Desaiji, J.P., who came to Bombay last week with his daughter and children to be present at the Fancy Fair had, on account of this sad bereavement, to leave for Bhownugger. The deceased was held in high esteem by the members of the caste, and others with whom she came in contact, and universal regret is felt.

A NARROW ESCAPE FROM PRISON.—Inspector Young yesterday, placed a man named Dajee Mehta, before Mr. Richardson, at the Esplanade Police Court, charging him with the theft of a watch, valued at Rs. 20, the property of a sepoy in Messrs. Max Minck's shop, about two months ago. The complainant, whose name is Rawjee Luxman, lost the watch. He had hung his coat, in the pocket of which he kept it, in a passage at the back of the shop, and when his work was finished and he came to get his garment the watch was missing. A few days ago, he was sent on a message to the house of a Mrs. Kraus, whose butler the accused was. While there, the man showed him the watch, and asked him to repair it. He identified it at once as the one which had been stolen from him, and gave information to the police, without letting the accused know that he recognised it as his. After evidence had been led the man was discharged, his Worship not feeling justified in convicting him after the decision of one of those who had given evidence.

A SHOCKING FATALITY.—A shocking fatality occurred at the Reversing Station on the Bhore Ghaut, last week. Mr. Barnes, the station-master, it appears went to sleep, with a box of sulphur matches in his pocket. By some mischance the matches ignited and set fire to his clothes. Before the unfortunate man could succeed in putting out the flames, he was so severely burnt as to render all recovery impossible. As soon as help could be secured he was taken into Lanowlie, where he died on Sunday night. He was buried on Monday morning. Mr. Barnes was an old servant of the Company and he leaves behind him a wife and family.—Poona Observer.

HIGH COURT.—ORIGINAL SIDE.

(Before the CHIEF JUSTICE and MR. JUSTICE SCOTT.)

CONSTRUCTION OF A WILL VARIED ON APPEAL.

THUCKER VUSSONJEE MUNJEE AND ANOTHER vs. THUCKER GORDHANDAS DAMODHAR AND ANOTHER.

THEIR LORDSHIPS delivered judgment in this suit, in which an appeal was filed by Vullubhdas Damodhar, the second defendant, from a decision given by Mr. Justice Parsons on the 15th August, 1889, in favour of the first defendant, Gordhandas Damodhar. Mr. Macpherson and Mr. Jardine, instructed by Messrs. Payne, Gilbert and Sayani, appeared for the second defendant and appellant ; Mr. Starling and Mr. Lang, instructed by Messrs. Roughton and Byrne, appeared for the first defendant and respondent ; and the Hon. Mr. Latham, instructed by Messrs. Jefferson, Bhaishunker, Dinshaw, and Kanga, appeared for the plaintiffs, Vussonjee Munjee and Lalbhai Gulabdas, two of the executors of the last will of Damodhar Madhowjee, late of Bombay.

The plaintiffs, the executors, sued in the Court below for an account of the estate of Damodhar Madhowjee and for an administration of the estate by the Court. It appeared that Damodhar Madhowjee died in 1886 possessed of considerable property, and having made his last will on 11th October, 1884, whereby he appointed the plaintiffs and the first defendant his executors and trustees. The testator left him surviving two sons, the first two defendants, and Kasarbai, widow of a predeceased brother. The two sons lived amicably together for some time after their father's death. In 1887, however, the second defendant filed a suit in this Court to have this will declared inoperative, on the ground that the properties were ancestral in the hands of the testator. The plaintiffs were not satisfied with the way in which the first defendant conducted the management of the estate, and he refused to allow them to join in the management of the estate, or even to furnish them with an inventory. He had been misconducting himself, wasting the estate, appropriating it to his own use and creating charges on it by executing mortgages. He had in one instance put the mortgagees in possession of the whole estate, about Rs. 1,50,000. Mr. Justice Parsons, on a construction of the will, decided in favour of the first defendant. The appellant contended that his lordship was wrong in holding that, under the will, the first defendant was entitled absolutely to the property at Girgaum Back Road, whereas he ought to have held that the two defendants were equally entitled to the property. It was further urged for the appellant that the utmost the first defendant could take under the will was a life estate in the property. Their lordships, on a consideration of the arguments of counsel and of the evidence, could not agree with the construction put upon the will by Mr. Justice Parsons, who held that the estate taken by the first defendant was absolute. The latter portion of clause 5 of the will did not show such to have been the intention of the testator, which was not to pass the estate to any one, but to create perpetuity of enjoyment of profits. The first defendant, their lordships held, was not entitled to an absolute estate but was only entitled for life to be paid the rents for the purposes specified in clause 5 of the will. The appellant was to have its costs from the respondent Gordhundas, who was also to pay the costs of the executors and trustees as between attorney and client.

THE WEATHER.

OBSERVATIONS TAKEN AT 8 A.M. ON THURSDAY THE 27TH OF FEBRUARY 1890.

SUMMARY.

A few cases excluded, the pressure has generally decreased throughout the Indian region. The rise has been rapid at Allahabad and Ajmere, brisk at Jhansi and Amraoti, and slight to moderate in the remaining districts. There has been but little change in the general distribution of pressure, high pressure areas being reported from Rajputana, and low pressure areas on the West Coast in the neighbourhood of Ratnagiri and Karwar. The isobars present no feature of any importance.

In the Punjab, the North-West Provinces, and at a few other stations, such as Jacobabad, Rajkot, Surat, Malegaon, Sholapur, Bombay and Negapatam, southwesterly to north-westerly winds prevail, but over the rest of the country there is fairly a general north-easterly current. Wind velocities exceeded the average in the Punjab, the North-West Provinces, and also at Amraoti, Sholapur, Bombay and Madras, and in most other places they have been generally less than the average. This morning's observations show that wind velocity was 10 miles an hour at Amraoti, 8 at Bombay, and 6 at Calicut, Goa, Nagpur, Indore, Rajkot, Agra and Allahabad.

The maximum temperature is 6° above the average at Surat and 5° below it at Amraoti, but in all other districts the variations are small. The highest maximum readings were 99° at Surat and Sholapur, 97° at Cuddapah and Akola, 96° at Secunderabad and Bellary and 95° at Coimbatore, Trichinopoly and Nagpur.

Nights are very cool at Masulipatam, Bellary, Ratnagiri, Ajmere and Jacobabad, and the lowest temperature last night was 49° at Jacobabad.

Humidity changes are irregular, and skies appear to be getting very cloudy in Ceylon and the south of the Peninsula.

Rain has fallen at Colombo, but there has been none anywhere else. Pressure is nearly uniform and fine clear weather prevails generally everywhere except in the south of the Peninsula and Ceylon, where it is cloudy.

E. DOWSON,
For Meteorological Reporter for Western India.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]
SIMLA, FEB. 27.

Barometer has fallen in small amounts, at Roorkee, Meerut, Khandesh, South Konkan and Orissa ; it has risen elsewhere ; increased briskly in Rajputana, Central India and Behar. Distribution is fairly normal, except over Bengal, where it is unusually low. Wind directions are also fairly normal, except in Bengal, where a cycloaic force blows fresh from the head of the Bay. Temperature has risen, except in North-western India and parts of the Peninsula. The mean is below the normal in Sind, Rajputana and Madras, but the excess is slight, except in Bengal. Slight rain has fallen in Moulmein, Sibsagar, and Colombo. Further showers are probable in Assam ; elsewhere the weather is fine and settled.

BOMBAY MARKET REPORT.

THURSDAY EVENING, FEB. 27.

WITH enhanced rates of Freight and Exchange, and no compensating decline in prices of Produce on the one hand, and an abnormally stringent Money Market on the other, business both in Exports and Imports continues more restricted than would be the case at this season under more favouring circumstances. Cotton became dull in the earlier part of the week under the influence of Liverpool advices, and has since been very quiet at some little decline in rates. Seeds and Wheat have been neglected to a great extent by exporters, though latterly there has been more enquiry again for the former. The course of Exchange has been upward, and the tone firm, and an advance of 5-32d. in demand Bank Bills, and ½d. in three months' sight Credits has been established since last Thursday. Money has become still tighter, and the Bank of Bombay rate now stands at 12 per cent. Government Paper has declined 5-16 per cent. in Fours. Freights have been firm and advancing, but are now quiet, though steady at the rise. No improvement is noticeable in the Import Market, but ready and forward business continuing to suffer from the causes which have for so long affected the trade.

MONEY.—The action of Government with regard to its cash balances, which was so severely animadverted upon last year in commercial and financial circles in connection with the abnormal stringency in money again calls for remark and expostulation in presence of the advance of the Presidency Bank's rate to 12 per cent. on Monday, indicating that the Money Market had again reached the acute stage. Naturally, on the verge of the very busiest part of the export season, we do not look for easy money; but trade has not been brisk in any of the leading lines of business, while the provision made by heavy shipments of bullion to this port, not to speak of the other media of remittance, should tend to prevent anything beyond the ordinary pressure incidental to the annual movement of Produce; and indeed the statement of the Bank of Bombay, issued at the beginning of the week, while it showed some falling off in Private Deposits, actually disclosed a slight decrease in Loans and Bills Discounted, Government, however, had withdrawn some 10 lakhs from the Bank, and the Bank's Cash Balance showed a diminution of over 17 lakhs, instead of the moderate falling off of under 6 lakhs which represented the net expansion of the trade demand since the date of the last previous return. The Bank of Bengal has raised its rate one per cent., making the minimum 11 per cent. per annum, the Cash Balance being 24 lakhs down.

EXCHANGE opened a shade firmer for Bank Telegraphic at 1s. 4 15-16d. on last Friday morning; but otherwise rates were much the same as quoted in our report of the previous evening. A moderate amount of Bank Telegraphic was placed at 1s. 4 15-16d.; also a few Merchants' Bills for the mail, for which the market closed steady. Forward Credits were quoted at 1s. 5 5-32d. to 3-32d. for March delivery, at 1s. 5 1-32d. to 1s. 5d. for April, and 1s. 4 15-16d. for May, but with nothing offering for the latter month. Some Bank Demand was placed for April, at 1s. 4 13-16d. The market was quiet and fairly steady for ready business on Saturday at Friday's quotations, but with forward rates dull, and buyers inclined to make concessions, few Merchants' Bills, however, coming out on any position. Three months' sight Credits, for March delivery, were quoted at 1s. 5 3-16 to 3-32d., and for April, at 1s. 5-1-16d to 1-32d. On Monday the feeling was quiet but firm all the morning, and on the Presidency Bank's rate being raised to 12 per cent. rates advanced 1-32d. all round. Merchants' Bills came out to a fair extent at the ready and forward quotations of the morning; but the demand for remittance was still quite nominal. The market was firmer on Tuesday with one seller of ready Demand at 1s. 5 1-32d. and 1s. 5d. for Telegraphic could possibly have been had. A fair amount of Merchants' Bills came out at the quotations for ready three months' sight Paper, at 1s. 5 7-32 to 1-8d. for March delivery, at 1s. 5 3-32d. to 1s. 5d. for April, and 1s. 4 15-16d. for May. Bank Telegraphic, for the first half of April Transfer, was offered at 1s. 4 7-8d; but demand for the Bank media of remittance, ready or forward, was almost nil. Yesterday the feeling continued very firm, and rates were again 1-32d. higher; but with less business doing in Mercantile Paper, and none of any consequence in the Bank media of remittance; a transaction was reported, however, in Telegraphic, for all March transfer, at 1s. 4 31-32d. and early April was quoted at 1s. 4 15-16d. It appears from the telegram to hand this morning that 23½ lakhs of Wire Transfers were allotted to Bombay yesterday, 12½ lakhs to Calcutta, and 3½ lakhs to Madras, at 1s. 5 132d. besides an extra lakh to Bombay, and ten to Calcutta, at 1s. 5½d. and 1s. 5 3-32d. respectively while Bar Silver was 1-16d. higher at 3½ per oz.; and this market in view of the full rates obtained by Government has been very firm at some further advance in rates. A considerable amount has come out in Bills at 1s. 5 5-16 to ½d. for March delivery; and at 1s. 5 3-16d., and later at 1s. 5 7-32d. for April. Bank Telegraphic has been placed, ¼d for April transfer, at 1s. 4 15-16d. We quote ready rates at closing:—

GOVERNMENT PAPER was weak on last mail day, and rates receded somewhat. Fours for cash were quoted during a part of the day at 98 11-16, but at closing 98⅝ was named, while for the coming settlement 98 13-16 was quoted and 99⅜ for the 31st March account, in the morning and thereafter 1-16 per cent. less. The market remained quiet but steady to the end of the week at 98⅝ for Fours for cash, 98¾ for the settlement on the 3rd proximo, and 99¼ for the account of the 31st idem; but with few bargains booked on either line, and little doing for money. On Monday Fours for money remained steady at 98⅜, at which they closed; but an advance of 1-16 per cent. was established for account, at 98 13-16 for the 3rd proximo, and 99 5-16 for the 31st idem. The cash price of Four per cents was steady on Tuesday at 98⅜; but for account, the rates receded slightly, the coming settlement having been quoted at 98¾, and the 31st March account at 99¼, but with little doing in any position. Yesterday the market was weak and declining, and the price of Fours for Money receded to 98⅛ while for Account, 28 9-16 became the rate for the 3rd proximo settlement and 99 1-16 for the end of the month. The feeling has been weak again to-day, and 98 7-16 to ½ has been generally quoted for cash and for the coming settlement, the higher rate, however being named at closing, while for the 31st March account the rate has receded to 99. For 4½ per cents. 100¼ nominal has been quoted thoughout the week.

Municipal 5 per cent. Loan is unaltered at 103½. Port Trust Bonds are 14 per cent. higher, at 95½.

SHARES.—The market for Cotton Mill Scrip continues to be depressed owing to the unsatisfactory state of the trade in Yarn with the principal consuming markets, and the high price of the raw material, and our list shows this evening a considerable decline in rates in many cases from those ruling a week ago, though in others we are able to notice some improvement. We note a fall of Rs. 100 per share in Alfred Manufacturing and Madras United; of Rs. 65 in Connaught; of Rs. 60 in Central India; of Rs. 40 in Oriental; of Rs. 35 in City of Bombay and Framji Petit; of Rs. 30 in Jamshed; and Jivraj Balloo; of Rs. 22½ in Maneckji Petit; of Rs. 20 in New Great Eastern and Victoria; of Rs. 15 each in Khatao Macconji, Mazagon, Queen, and Swadeshi; of Rs. 10 each in Bombay Cotton, Colaba Land and Mill, Luckmidas Khimji, and Ripon; of Rs. 12 in Anglo-Indian; and of Rs. 5 in Prince of Wales. On the other hand, we have to report an advance of Rs. 30 in Western India; of Rs. 25 in Hingunghat; of Rs. 15 in Bellary and David; of Rs. 10 each in Empress, Howard and Bullough, Hyderabad Deccan, Southern Mahratta, and Khandeish; of Rs. 5 each in Indian Manufacturing, People of India, and Sholapore; and of Rs. 2½ in Gordon. In Press shares, French are Rs. 20 higher; East Indian, Bombay, and Mercantile have advanced Rs 5 each; New Indian are Rs. 3 higher; and Mofussil, Rs. 2½; while we note a decline of Rs. 15 in Colaba; Rs. 10 in English; and Rs. 5 in Apollo. Bombay Flour Mill shares are Rs. 40 higher. In Banks, Bank of Bombay shares are Rs. 5 lower; Bank of Madras have advanced Rs. 30; and National are Rs. 10 lower.

IMPORTS.

PIECE GOODS.—Supported by the Manchester Market, dealers in staple Grey Goods have been doing their best to uphold current values, at which, however, the up-country demand continues slack on account of the difficulty of obtaining financial accommodation. Were it not for the refusal of longer credit by the dealers to Mofusil buyers, a larger business would have been possible. Rates generally are unchanged; and stocks are gradually increasing. In Bleached, Dyed, Turkey Red and Printed Goods only a small business, at current rates, has transpired. The clearances of Imported Goods for the week are estimated at about 3,400 packages. Makers of Local Goods are strongly resisting the downward tendency of prices, contenting themselves with the sales that they are able to effect at current rates. Sales for the week have been about 1,600 bales.

YARNS.—The market for imported Twist has been quiet, and only a small business has transpired, but prices generally are unchanged. The sales of Bombay Spinnings reported from China for the week ending on last Monday aggregated 7,500 bales, with Exchange at Rs. 220; and spinners and other holders here, are willing enough to clear off ready lots at a small concession; but China buyers propose still lower rates. There is, however, a moderate enquiry for No. 10s. and 16s. of superior makes on the forward line. The Sales here for the week have been about 3,000 bales, and the market closed quiet, at the following official quotations:—

|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Twist... | ...No. 6s | Mule, As. | 5½ | ... | per lb. | |
| " ... | ... " 8s | " " | 5¾ | ... | " | |
| " ... | ... " 10s | " " | 5¾ | to 6¼ | " | |
| " ... | ... " 12s | " " | 5¾ | to 6½ | " | |
| " ... | ... " 16s | " " | 5¾ | to 6¾ | " | |
| " ... | ... " 20s | " " | 5 15-16 | to 6⅞ | " | |
| " ... | ... " 24s | " " | 6¾ | to 7 | " | |
| " ... | ... " 30s | " " | 7¼ | to 7½ | " | |

METALS.—Copper following the downward movement on the other side is 4 to 8 annas per cwt. lower in a quiet market, little fresh business having transpired during the week. Yellow Metal is also lower to the same extent, and has been in limited demand in a quiet market. Iron has not been much wanted, and prices may be called 8 annas lower, the market being steady at the decline.

COAL.—In the absence of all demand for this mineral rates for forward shipments are distinctly lower, and importers are now willing sellers of Powell's Duffryn, for shipment next month, at Rs. 20½ per ton. For Davison's West Hartley there is still an enquiry, especially for small ready lots, at Rs. 20 per ton; but for shipments a month hence there are sellers, at Rs. 19 per ton. No sales, however, have transpired during the past week. The market closes quiet at our quotations, say:—

|---|---|
| Powell's Duffryn..... | Rs. 20½ per ton. |
| Davison's West Hartly... | " 19 " |
| Longrigg..... | " 18½ " |

EXPORTS.

COTTON.—This market remained steady in tone to the close of last week, with a considerable business passing in ready stuff, exporters, as well as the Mills, having been buyers. On Monday there was still a good enquiry, but the feeling had become decidedly quiet, and at the following day the tone was dull, exporters having retired from the market, while local spinners were buyers to a small extent only, and prices gave way Re. 1 to Rs. 2 per candy. There after demand improved somewhat, but the feeling was quiet in sympathy with advices from Liverpool, and transactions were upon a small scale. The principal purchases during the past week have been in Oomra varieties, mainly Dhulia, at Rs. 200-8½; Khangaum, at Rs. 212-18½; Julgaum, at Rs. 205-8½; Nugger, at Rs. 211-20; Barsee, at Rs. 224-33½; and Akote at Rs. 207-9; with smaller lots of Sheogaum at Rs. 210; Karanja, at Rs. 209; and Indore Ginned, at Rs. 215½ Bengals have also been in some demand, and have found buyers at Rs. 176 to Rs. 193, according to quality, some ready Broach has changed hands at Rs. 259; and Mowa at Rs. 224-5 per candy. The Market closed with a dull feeling this evening, with prices Re. 1 to Rs. 4 lower than those ruling a week ago.

The arrivals of Cotton of the new crop during the week have been about the same as in the corresponding week in 1889, at 79,000 bales, and the excess in receipts since the opening of the new season is within 900 bales, of what it was a week ago, at 92,600 bales.

The following are to-day's quotations for full pressed cotton with the equivalents in Sterling, cost and freight to Liverpool, via Canal, without commission:—

WHEAT has been in but slight demand for export during the past week, and nothing beyond a small business has been passing on any day, while the tone of the market, though latterly rather steadier, has generally been quiet when not dull. Prices of all descriptions are, however, unchanged.

SEEDS continued out of enquiry for export after last mail left, and on Tuesday the feeling, which had previously been quiet or steady became dull, and Linseed gave way 1 to 2 annas per cent. in value. Yesterday, however, a part of this decline was recovered, Rs. 6-5-0 to Rs. 6-10-0 being quoted in a steady market with a considerable business passing; but other quotations are unaltered.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1890.

THE Senate of the University of Bombay, at their meeting this evening, will be invited by the Hon. Mr. Latham to pass a resolution requesting the Governor-in-Council to forward to the Government of India for favourable consideration the draft of an Act for amending the constitution of the University which was passed by the Senate in September 1888. In view of the motion which is to be made this evening the Government have addressed to the University Registrar a letter in which an endeavour is made to show cause why the measure should not be proceeded with. We shall not be unduly anticipating the action of the Senate if we express a belief that the reasons therein set forth will be found wholly irrelevant and inconclusive. Government begin by laying down the evasive commonplace that the "introduction of organic changes in the constitution of a great corporation is an undertaking of extreme delicacy." No one will deny this; but few will pretend that no other fate than that of pigeon-holing should be reserved for measures of extreme delicacy. If the Government of Lord Reay had shrunk from every extremely delicate task that duty and destiny have imposed upon them their record would have been a singularly unexciting and unproductive one. That contention, then, may be passed over as inappropriate and uncourageous. The next excuse—for no more dignified term can be applied to it—is that there is a difference of opinion on the subject in the University, and that therefore the whole thing had better be left alone. Here again the excuse is weak, timid, and irrelevant, and the Senate will be justified in regarding it as wholly unsatisfactory. Lastly it is alleged that "Government do not consider that this Bill would enhance the usefulness or efficiency of the University in stimulating the progress of higher education in this Presidency, but rather that it would impose a check upon the gradual extension of the academic influence of the University to a wider sphere." This is so oracular a phrase that we shall not attempt to construe it. But the Chancellor of the University and other eminent members of the Senate whose belief the letter before us is intended to express are in Bombay to-day, and if they are anxious that the Fellows should comprehend what is implied therein, they could not do better than attend the meeting this evening, and give an intelligible interpretation to their own pronouncement.

The history of the question is in comparatively recent memory. Towards the end of 1887 the then Vice-Chancellor drafted a project of University reform which aimed at the accomplishment of certain important changes in the constitution of the University. It provided chiefly for the gradual introduction of the representative principle in the constitution of the Senate, for defining the Faculties of which the University shall consist, and for the exercise of powers of discipline and control by the Senate over the Colleges affiliated with the University. The measure was brought in due course before the Senate. A disposition was shown to proceed at once to a division upon it, but this was strongly objected to in these columns and elsewhere, and after an animated "second reading" debate, as it would have been called in the House of Commons, it was referred to an influential Committee, consisting of the Hon. Mr. Justice Birdwood, the Hon. Mr. Latham, the Hon. Mr. Telang, Dr. Theodore Cook, Mr. Hathornthwaite, Father Mayer, Dr. Vandyke Carter, Dr. Hojel, Mr. V. S. Apte, and the Rev. Dr. Mackichan. The Committee held five meetings in the cold weather of 1887-8, at which the clauses of the Bill were considered seriatim, and early in February of the latter year they handed in a report, accompanied by two dissenting minutes signed by Mr. Birdwood and Mr. Telang. The last-named agreed with the majority of the amendments recommended by the Committee; the former adhered to the original draft, and at some length set out his reasons for doing so. The amended draft came before the Senate at a series of meetings held in August and September of the same year. It was exhaustively discussed and finally passed by the Senate on the 6th of September. The result of the discussion may be broadly summed up in this way. Greater provision was made than in the original draft for the self government of the University, and the provision proposed for the government by the University of the institutions associated with it was largely restricted. The discussion was long and diffused, but the principles around which it was maintained were few and simple. For instance the majority of the Senate held strongly that if the principle of self-government were worth introducing at all it would be better to introduce it frankly and ungrudgingly. The question at issue between the Senate and the framer of the Bill was simply whether there should be less or more of the elective principle in the future constitution of the University; and the Senate, with full regard to the consequences, took the more liberal view of the matter. In the same spirit they differed from the original proposal to apply Mr. Morley's "one man, one vote" method to Senatorial elections. Cumulative voting was substituted in the belief that this would insure a due representation of minor interests in the government of the University. Again when the Senate excised the section which defines the Faculties of which the University shall consist, they had a regard to the possibilities of the future extension and development of the mission of the University which we cannot hold to be unreasonable. Yet the matter is not vital, and it is exceedingly difficult to understand why the Government should regard diversity of opinion upon such a point as this as a bar to legislation. In regard to qualifications for Fellowship the Senate certainly took liberties with the original scheme. We ourselves objected strongly to the form which Sir Raymond West's proposal upon this point finally assumed in their hands. But there was some excuse for an amendment which at the time we characterised as fantastic in the impracticable limitations which the author of the Bill had placed upon the qualification for Fellowship. He had proposed amongst other things to confer electoral rights upon Bachelors of Medicine, of whom there are none in the University, and upon Doctors of Medicine of whom the University turns out upon the average exactly one in a decade. We do not pretend that the Senate had by any means punctiliously adhered to the lines of the original Bill. Some of its amendments, moreover, would be pretty certain to be marked out in a discussion of the Bill in the Legislative Council.

But whether the Bill as it left the Senate is as good a measure as it was when it left the author's hands is not the only point that the Government, as a Government, have to consider, whatever individual members of the administration may think about it. The letter of excuse—for we cannot otherwise describe it—which will be read in the Senate this evening pleads the division of opinion in the Senate itself as a justification for inaction. There was no such large divison of opinion as Government seems to suppose. In the Select Committee, to whose guidance on the main provisions of the measure the Senate freely submitted themselves, there was only one dissentient to the main proposals of nine members. But the most striking commentary upon the plea of division of opinion as an excuse for inaction is to be found in the fact that Mr. Justice Birdwood, the minority member of the Committee, who fought hard for the original draft, has undertaken to be Mr. Latham's seconder this evening. Mr. Birdwood and those who supported him did their best to get their views accepted in the Senate. They made a good fight, and they took their defeat in good part, and we infer from Mr. Birdwood's attitude to-day that he is as anxious as any of his colleagues can be that the formally declared views of the University shall be accepted by Government as a basis for legislation. It is not here alone that the inaction of the Government is regarded with surprise. The Viceroy, who lately pronounced in favour of the election of a part of the Senate of Calcutta by the graduates is understood to have made pressing enquiries in Bombay as to when the elective principle is to be introduced in our University. Is the answer to be that Government will see to that matter when the Senate has made up its mind to accept the pigeon-holed Bill in the form in which Sir Raymond West drafted it? It looks very much as though that were the intention of Government. We are sorry indeed that our own forebodings on the subject have been so closely justified. Nearly eighteen months ago we expressed the fear that those who were concerned in the preparation of the Bill would not work as hard for its enactment as they would have done had it passed through the Senate in its original form. Events have justified this anticipation. Lord Reay has explicitly told us that it was on the advice of Sir Raymond West that the Government decided not to go on with the Bill. Government would have acted more wisely if they had made some allowance for Sir Raymond West's not unnatural affection for his own handiwork, and had considered the question independently and upon its merits. The Senate however have it in their power to take away all excuse for the inaction of the Government. A unanimous vote this afternoon, or anything approaching it, will make short work of the plea that the Government cannot propose legislation for the University because the University itself is divided in opinion. Whatever division of opinion there may have been on points of detail there is no desire to allow this difference to stand in the way of legislation upon lines of which the University has formally approved. After all the responsibility of the Government in this matter is only intermediate. It is to the Supreme Government and not to them that we have to look for legislation on University policy. Their task is limited to the despatch of the Bill to the Viceroy's Government. They may criticise it as much as they choose, and we know that just now they are not wanting in critical faculty. If the Bombay Government choose to supply the criticism we may trust the Supreme Government to do the constructive part of the work. But the indefinite postponement of reforms for which the University has urgently asked is not to be tolerated simply because the University when asked to state its desires did so a little too candidly for those from whom the invitation came.

YESTERDAY after some discussion the Corporation decided to request the Government to allow Mr. Acworth, who is gazetted to the post of Municipal Commissioner, and will assume charge when Mr. Ollivant takes up his appointment in Kattyawar, to act forthwith as Deputy Commissioner. The object is to enable the Commissioner-designate to become familiarised with the large and complicated questions now pending, before succeeding to the Commissionership in May. In making this proposal, Mr. Dossabhai Framji referred to the presence of Mr. Baldwin Latham in Bombay, with a view to the completion of the drainage scheme, the necessity of providing against a possible water-famine by the construction of the Pawai Lake, the prosecution of the Tansa works, and the growing pressure of Municipal business, as constituting exceptional reasons justifying the exceptional course of enabling the successor to the Commissionership to get the threads well in hand. His view was accepted by the majority, after hearing what could be urged on the other side by those who regarded the proposal as "the thin end of the wedge" which would lead eventually to the appointment of a permanent Deputy Commissioner. Others were of opinion that such an appointment cannot be much longer delayed, owing to the impossibility of getting on without a deputy, but they objected to the present proposal, dwelling on the fact that Lord Harris is not sent out by the Secretary of State to learn the routine of administration from Lord Reay. The cases are not quite parallel, but there are many reasons which would render a brief apprenticeship to the duties of a Governor desirable in itself. Lord Harris will be an exception to all his predecessors if he has not to pass at least a couple of months in acquiring that knowledge of persons and things which is the indispensable prelimary to the satisfactory performance of difficult and delicate administrative duties.

THE statement telegraphed from London that the Secretary of State has received a petition from Mr. Arthur Crawford praying for the payment of the law expenses incurred in meeting the charges inquired into by the Commission which sat in Poona, is doubtless correct. There was, some time since, an intimation that this claim would be preferred on the ground that the Report of the Commissioners was favourable to the accused on the more serious charges, and that he ought therefore to be reimbursed the outlay involved in meeting them. So far as we are aware, this claim has not been submitted to the Bombay Government, which dissented from the Report of the Commission.

AT its yesterday's meeting, the Municipal Corporation resolved, on the motion of Mr. Dosabhoy Framji, to request Government to lend Mr. H. A. Acworth's services to the Corporation in the capacity of Deputy Municipal Commissioner; and subject to the confirmation of Government, appointed him as such till the departure of Mr. Ollivant from Bombay at a salary of Rs. 1,500 per month. The Corporation considered the Resolution of the Standing Committee passed at its last meeting to the effect that a sum of Rs. 12,500 be paid towards the day Fete to be held at the Victoria Gardens on the arrival of H. R. H. Prince Albert Victor in Bombay; Rs. 3,500 towards the illumination of Municipal properties, including the statues and fountains in charge of the Municipality; and Rs. 5,000 towards the public reception fund, making a total of Rs. 21,000. The Municipal Commissioner recommended that a sum of Rs. 25,000 should be voted for the above-mentioned purposes. After much discussion, Mr. A. M. Dharamsi proposed as an amendment to the proposition of the Standing Committee that the Corporation sanctioned a sum not exceeding Rs. 30,000, out of which Rs. 12,000 should be paid for the day Fete in the Victoria Gardens; Rs. 10,000 towards the illumination of Municipal properties, the balance of Rs. 8,000 being contributed towards the general fund. As the Corporation had no power to increase the grant made by the Standing Committee it was finally resolved to refer the matter back to the Committee, with an expression of the opinion of the Corporation that it was willing to sanction a sum not exceeding Rs. 30,000 for the purposes above indicated. The matter will be again brought before the Standing Committee at its next meeting, and before the Corporation at a special meeting convened by the President for next Thursday.

THE Hon. J. B. Richey, C.S.I., has been permitted to resign H.M.'s Covenanted Civil Service in the Bombay establishment, with effect from March 19.

WE are desired to request that any gentlemen wishing to subscribe to the Sir Frank Forbes Adam Memorial Fund will send the amount of their subscriptions to the Bank of Bombay, to the credit of the Fund. The evening party to be given in honor of Sir Frank and Lady Forbes Adam will take place at Petit Hall on Wednesday, the 12th proximo, at 9-30 p.m.

LADY REAY'S FANCY FAIR.

PUNCTUALLY at half-past four yesterday afternoon the business of the Fair was resumed. The ladies at the various stalls had evidently fully recovered from the effects of their heavy labours in preparing for the opening. They were soon busily employed in attending the continuous flow of customers, for they all appeared in the merriest of spirits. Delighted with their success on the opening day, the gains having exceeded their expectations, and having been much ahead of those at the opening of the Fair of 1883, they were early in attendance. The gates were hardly thrown open ere carriages began to arrive. But before proceeding any further it may as well be mentioned here that the Fair was open an hour before the admission of the general public for the benefit of purdah ladies. Unfortunately, some misunderstanding arose in connection with this arrangement. It was advertised that the Fair would be opened at 3-30 p m. for purdah ladies, but it would seem Lady Reay had fixed another day for them, and it being her desire to be present to receive them in person, messengers were sent round to those who, it was expected, would come. Many, however, appeared at the advertised hour. Some turned away on hearing how things stood; but others entered, and were kindly led round by the ladies of the various stalls, and shown the most interesting features of the place. The privileged visitors, we are informed, enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

Attention was mostly directed in the early part of the evening to the stalls, around which purchasers clustered in crowds, showing that it was evedent notwithstanding the large amount of money drawn on the opening day, everybody's purses had not been drained. As a matter of course, the Durbar Tent, occupied by H. R. H. the Duchess of Connaught and Lady Reay was the centre of attraction. The stallholders, however, had some reason to complain of the counter-attractions which they averred drew away a large portion of their customers. The entertainments are many and good, the Royalty Theatre in particular being a great source of attraction, the stage being occupied by some show the entire day from the opening of the Fair till the closing of the doors. Lady Morland's Cafe Chantant was as a matter of course thronged; the presiding diva was again as on the previous evening in excellent voice. As on the previous evening Lady Morland was energetically supported by ladies who never wearied in the good cause. Mrs. Harry Williams regretted her inability to be present and take part in the concert owing to indisposition.

It was between five and six o'clock that the fun of the Fair began. Considerable surprise was created by the appearance of a most disreputable-looking mendicant, who with crooked back and tottering step prowled about sticking in front of everyone he met a battered old tin canister. No one thought of giving him anything, and the ticket collector was rounded upon for allowing such a man to pass. Finding begging about the grounds a failure, he chanced to pass the "Colaba Arms." Mr. "Sterriman's" kindly, jovial face attracted the old mendicant, and boldly entering he produced his can. The ladies gazed upon the strange visitor in amazement, and then hid behind the bar, while Mr. "Sterriman" assuming the role of chucker out for the nonce, the blind beggar went. Some people meeting him afterwards thought they recognised in the quaint figure an old Bombay worthy long since departed, no other in fact than Mad Albert. It was a thoroughly clever make-up, and an admirably sustained character, but who the gentleman player was we are not yet at liberty to say. Much of the fun centred at the "Colaba Arms." Messrs. "Sterriman and Mopford," dressed something after the fashion of innkeepers of a century ago, labouring hard in assisting the fair waitresses of the establishment and pressing on customers their "surprise" sandwiches.

As it began to grow dusk the work of lighting up began. The electric light behaved well this time, and although Mr. Phipson had arranged for a plentiful supply of oil lamps, they were fortunately not required, and the grounds, under the powerful light, were as bright as day.

A musical treat was afforded by the massed Bands of the Bombay Garrison, comprising the Bands of the Gloster Regiment, the Marine Battalion, the Rifle Battalion, and Bombay Rifle Volunteers. The programme was well selected, the items being varied and popular.

As many as four different performances were given in the Royalty Theatre. It was never empty. At 5-30 it opened with a rather novel performance. The Victoria Dramatic Company played a farce in Hindustani, entitled "The Fancy Ball." It is a pity they did not get a better audience, for the performance was certainly worthy of it. At 7-30 a goodly crowd assembled to witness the feats of the "Bounding Brothers of Bosphorus", who were no other, in fact, than Messrs. Hobday and Corbyn. They were both made up as circus clowns, and opened their performance with some most mirth-provoking play. The feats of skill displayed were clever. Captain Hobday by his wonderful balancing powers, and the agility he displayed in turning on the cross bar, gained much applause. Captain Corbyn besides displaying his skill as an athlete performed many merry antics. His balancing of an imaginary straw upon his nose was particularly droll. Their exhibition was a clever and entertaining one, and worth much more than the small sum asked for admission.

The Cafe Chantant had a fair run of customers, but the rival entertainments at the Royalty Theatre attracted most of the visitors. Mysterious whisperings went about that some well-known celebrities were to be on exhibition at the waxwork, and accordingly at nine o'clock the theatre was crowded with an eager audience. The organisers of the show were certainly very personal in their exhibits, as the following programme will show:—

Tableau No. 1.

Our Coming Governor.
Bradlaugh back again (or the Congreswalla's delight).
The Parsee Volunteer (or Propert's Protege).

Tableau No. 2.

Vernon or Patel, or Tata's Tiffin.
The Commodore on the Rocks.
A Local Hit (or a Belligerent Baker and a Pugnacious Prothonotary).

Tableau No. 3.

Bombay Babes.
The African Lioness and the Bombay Barrister.
"You Dirty Boy" (or the Latest Strike).

"Our Coming Governor" was exhibited in cricketing dress, putting down his hat to sign an order that all offices shall be closed on Saturday afternoon for cricket. "Tata's Tiffin" was one of the most amusing and most cleverly carried out. Mr. Tata was discovered plying Mr. Vernon with champagne which the latter consumed with a gusto, but which the knowing Parsee unobserved threw over his shoulder. It was a severe hit, but was received with loud laughter, the Parsee spectators evidently enjoying the humour of the tableau themselves. There was no mistaking who the Commodore on the Rocks was meant for. If the figure could not be recognised, a very talkative parrot revealed the identity of the gentleman who sat in a chair unable to move with an injured limb. But everything was done in such good humour, that though the hits may have been very personal, no offence could have been taken at them. The event of the evening, however, was the representation of the comedietta "Darby and Joan" by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Terry. The prices of admission were raised to Rs. 2 for the occasion; but the place was crowded, there being people standing in every available corner, while some late comers were unable to gain admission. T. R. H. the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, and T. E. Lord and Lady Reay patronised the performance, and sat it out with evident enjoyment. It is needless to dwell on the representation of the charming little play, for Mr. and Mrs. Terry were no strangers to the majority of last night's audience, suffice to say it was a treat such as we seldom have in Bombay. We have much to be grateful for the fair wind that wafted them hither; and in return Mr. and Mrs. Terry have the satisfaction of knowing that their efforts have been a means of considerably adding to Lady Reay's Fund.

The drawings yesterday were not so heavy as on the opening day—it was hardly to be anticipated that they would—but they quite came up to expectations; and so the success of the Fair is already assured.

BOMBAY RACES.—THIRD DAY.

THE attendance at the stand last evening was very small. This, no doubt, was due to the counter-attraction on the Esplanade. In the Selling Race for the Second Dealers' horses Mahajoob was most fancied, but it was practically an open race. No one, however, expected that Namook, on whom 10 to 1 was given, would be anywhere in it. He romped in easily, Tulfa and Tofick being second and third.

A fairly large field faced the starter in the next race, Orator and Viceroy dividing the public fancy. It was a grand race and resulted in a win for the favourite by a short head.

In the Selling Race for all horses, Landshark and Moab started with 2 to 1 on. This also was a good race, resulting in a win for Landshark by a length, Corinthian and Moab having a hard fight for second place.

The Mahomedan Cup saw twelve horses at the post. Of these Scimitar, Interpreter and Fareed were most in requisition with the bookmakers. It resulted in a dead heat between Scimitar and Napier. These two ran it over again, when Napier won by half a length.

Rocket is hot favourite in the Zoroastrian Purse, and rewarded his admirers by winning in a canter.

The following are the particulars of the day's sport:—

Camel ran up the course after the field, but was eventually turned off. Time, 3m. 20s.

H. H. THE RAO OF CUTCH IN KATHIAWAD.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

KATHIAWAD, FEB. 25.

IT has been customary for daughters of the Zala family to visit the temple of their Tutelary Goddess at Halwad in Dhrangadra on their being blessed with sons. His Highness the Rao having married from the Zala family it was found necessary for her Highness Maharani Gangaba Saheb, daughter of Rana Jalam Sangjee, cousin to his Highness, the Raj Saheb of Dhrangadra, to visit the said temple at Halwad, in company with the young Prince Madhubha. This opportunity was availed of by Rana Julam Sangjee to invite his Highness Maharaja Khengarjee to Charadwa and his Highness left Bhuj for the purpose. On Saturday, the 18th instant, with Prince Madhubha Kumar Shri Kalubha, C.I.E., her Highness Maharani Gangaba Saheb, and his Highness the Rao's sister her Highness Princess Bai Rajba Saheb. His Highness visited Charadwa via Wawania, and the sowari of the zenana took the land route through Shikarpur and Malia. Both the section of his Highness's sowari reached Charadwa on Wednesday, the 19th instant. The arrangements for his Highness' reception at Charadwa were excellent—several triumphal arches were erected, surrounded with appropriate mottos; the little town and its approaches were also decorated, with a profusion of bunting. His Highness and party were conducted in state to Rana Jalam Sangjee's residence with great rejoicings, and the people who could seldom see such a grand sight seemed greatly pleased.

On Thursday, the 20th, the whole town and its surroundings were illuminated, and there was a display of fireworks outside the town on the new tank, which Rana Jalam Sangjee is constructing near the Halwad gate of the town. In addition to the inhabitants of the town, visitors from neighbouring villages were gathered together to see the illumination and fireworks.

On Friday, the 21st instant, Prince Madhubha and her Highness Maharani Gangaba Sahib accompanied by her Highness Princess Bai Rajba Saheb, visited Halwad to bow down before the Zala family goddess of that place, and his Highness the Rao went out on a shikar expedition. In the evening his Highness and party were entertained to a nautch and music.

On Saturday, the 22nd, his Highness visited a country garden, recently laid out by Rana Jalam Sangjee, and a dispensary. In the evening there was a formal ceremony of laying the foundation-stone of a veterinary hospital. A mandap was erected a few paces outside the Mata gate of the town. Before the arrival of his Highness the Rao the mandap was attended by the principal townspeople, his Highness's Sardars, and Officials and Bhayads of Rana Jalam Sangjee. Exactly at 5 p. m. his Highness arrived in company with the Political Agent of Cutch, Colonel W. A. Salmon, and his Highness's brother Kumar Shri Kalubha, C.I.E. When all had taken their seats Rana Jalam Sangjee, speaking in Gujarati, said:—

Your Highness, Col Salmon, and Gentlemen,—Before requesting his Highness to perform the auspicious ceremony of laying the foundation-stone of this hospital at his Highness' gracious hands, I take the liberty of saying a few words as to the condition in former days of this town of Charadwa, and what changes have overcome it in course of time. Charadwa was at one time a populous town. Such is its traditional account. Time brought on its decay, and it was gradually reduced to the state of a wandh or hamlet, containing not more than one hundred cottages of cowherds. As you are not unaware every thing is subject to rise and fall. Charadwa is well-known by its historical events. His Highness Maharaja Khengarjee, the first Rao of Cutch, while on his visit to Ahmedabad passed through this town. A Gurjee (a Jain priest) of the place happened to decipher signs of greatness, valour, and enterprise about the physique of this Prince and thereupon presented him with a sang (weapon) to be used on occasions of difficulties. It was this sang with which Rao Khengarjee was enabled to kill a tiger in Ahmedabad, and regain through the then King of Ahmedabad his lost patrimony the gadi of Cutch. This sang has this day been preserved in the Poshal or Brij Bhasra School at Bhuj, and is worshipped by the Princes of Cutch, when they first commence their study. The temple of the goddess, in the Poshal at Bhuj, is of the same Rajbai Mata, whose temple we find here in Charadwa. Thus Charadwa is associated with the ancient history of Cutch. As I said above everything which seems to flourish has also its time of decline, and that which falls is likely to rise some day or other as time rolls on. In Samvat 1926 his late Highness Maharao Shree Pragmaljee Bahadur, on his way to Bombay, passed through Charadwa, and twice afterwards honoured me with his Highness's presence there. The present Rao his Highness Maharao Shri Khengarjee Savai Bahadur, G.C.I.E., too, three or four times honoured this place with his gracious visits. On each of these occasions his Highness's party must have observed the condition of this town, and some of them have had the opportunity of seeing it now. A library building has lately been provided in the town; there is a dispensary lately opened, and a vernacular school, and a trained Sanskrit teacher to impart a knowledge of Sanskrit literature. This is an agricultural district and its inhabitants depend mostly on cultivation of land. Human beings are able to take care of themselves, and yet there are means provided for their happiness, but there is none to take care of mute animals, and the building of which a foundation-stone will justly be laid is intended to supply this want. There will be separate stalls for different animals, such as cows, buffaloes, camels, sheep, and goats, &c., and these will be taken care of by a trained Veterinary Doctor. Sick animals will be admitted to the stalls, and returned to their owners when they get well. A step-well will be provided in one corner of the building with a view to supply pure drinkable water to the sick animals. I need scarcely say I have to thank Cutch for my present tendency to works of charity. As we all know every one is apt to benefit from the virtues of the society he enjoys. For the last three or four generations I have had close connection with the Cutch Raj. His late Highness Maharao Desaljee was very kind to my grandfather, and the latter entrusted my father to the care of his Highness. It is incumbent upon Kshatrias (Rajputs) to maintain the position of those who seek their protection, and his Highness Rao Desaljee invariably extended his kindness to our House. His late Highness Rao Pragmaljee likewise maintained the regulation of our family. Owing to my long connection with the Cutch Raj, and what I have seen for many years of the solicitude and interest of that Durbar towards promotion of works of public utility, I was thoroughly impressed with the necessity of doing what I can in this town, and I must therefore say that what I have done and what I am still striving to do is the result of the impressions made upon me in Bhuj. His Highness having been pleased to honor me with his presence here, I avail myself of this happy opportunity of requesting his Highness to do me the favour of laying the foundation-stone of this small veterinary hospital. I need not say it is not enough to say, I shall be greatly obliged to your Highness. For one might use that expression only if there were one or two acts of obligations, but I have received so many kindnesses and have been laid under so many obligations by the Cutch Durbar, that I confess I am constrained to use that expression for I cannot find a more appropriate word to convey the full sense of my grateful feelings."

His Highness then rose and made the following observations:—

Col. Salmon and Gentlemen,—It gives me great pleasure to comply with the request of Rana Jalam Sangjee for laying the foundation-stone of this veterinary hospital. Rana Jalam Sangjee has with commendable zeal provided this town with many works of public utility; such as a hospital, a library, wells, tanks, &c., and he is now going to undertake the construction of a veterinary hospital in the interests of the dumb animals, as if he had made up his mind to leave nothing undone in the way of reforms. The inhabitants of Charadwa ought to feel grateful to Rana Jalam Sangjee for what has been done for their benefit. Even to casual visitors as we are it is very gratifying to see all these useful works carried out in a small town like this. There is no wonder that I should be personally pleased with such improvements; for as observed by Rana Jalam Sangjee there has been for the last three or four generations a close social connection of our family with that of Rana Jalam Sangjee. Following the precepts of our native saying "Let there be no delay in executing works of charity," I think, I might now begin with the ceremony of laying the foundation-stone without speaking further on this occasion.

His Highness then laid the foundation-stone with due formality. As soon as his Highness declared the stone well and truly laid all present marked the occasion with vociferous cheering. The party then returned to the mandap, where school-children recited pieces of Gujerati poetry specially composed for the occasion, and Rana Jalam Sangjee's Shastree recited Sanscrit shlokas, composed in honour of his Highness. The distribution of pan-sopari brought the proceedings to a close.

On the following two days took place distribution of prizes by his Highness to the students of the local school, and holding of Durbars for presentation of poshaks from Rana Jalam Sangjee to his Highness the Rao and party and vice-versa. These Darbars were attended by Colonel Salmon, Political Agent of Cutch. There were also a display of several country sports which included Dandia Ra's athletic exercises, and interesting songs of females of the Muchhi tribe, living in the town, &c.

ALLEGED EXTENSIVE FRAUD ON THE BANK OF BENGAL.

A CHARGE of forgery, in which sums amounting in the aggregate to thirteen lakhs, has been laid in the Presidency Magistrates' Court under the following circumstances:—On the 18th of this month Mr. E. M. Slater, the constituted attorney of the Bank of Bengal and until lately the agent of the Bank in Bombay, appeared before Mr. Cooper and stated that he had for some time past been in the habit of doing a discount business with the firm of Hajee Abdool Latif Baldina, whose firm was managed by Hajee Adam Hajee Abdool Latiff, and who held a power of attorney on behalf of his father Hajee Abdool Latif baldina. On a large number of the bills discounted by the Bank the name of Ebrahim Hajee Jakria appeared as a co-obligant, and upon the credit of that name the bills were discounted by the Bank. The total amount of bills discounted and running on the 18th October amounted to about thirteen lakhs of rupees. The endorsement of Hajee Jakria was made by Abdool Latif under a power of attorney dated the 7th of November 1888. On the 12th of October, 1889, the Bank wrote to Hajee Jakria, sending a list of the bills bearing his endorsements, and in the same month he received a letter from Messrs. Jefferson, Bhaishanker, Dinshaw, and Kanga, denying that he had ever endorsed such bills. On the 22nd October Mr. Bhaishanker attended at the Bank in company of Hajee Jakria and examined the power of attorney said to be signed by his client which he repudiated. The name of Hajee Jan Mahomed Hajee Abdool Sutar also appeared on many of the bills, he being represented by Abdool Latif to be a rich Memon merchant. Abdool Sutar signed the bills in the presence of one of the Bank officials. On the 19th October the informant wrote to Hajee Abdool Sutar, informing him that two bills of Rs. 10,000 each remained unpaid. In reply to this the same firm of solicitors denied that their client had ever signed such bills. Under these circumstances Mr. Slater asked his Worship for a warrant against Hajee Adam Hajee Abdool Latiff. This was granted; but the accused was not to be found. On the 25th instant, however, he gave himself up in Court, and was taken in custody. On Wednesday he was placed before Mr. Cooper when Mr. Slater gave some formal evidence relating to four bills of Rs. 1,35,000 and the case was postponed till to-day.

The accused had his place of business in Bazaar Gate Street. He carried on a very large business and was thought well of in native society.

PRINCE ALBERT VICTOR'S RECEPTION IN BOMBAY.

THE first general meeting of the Prince Albert Victor's Works Committee was held in the Chamber of Commerce yesterday evening at 5 o'clock, Mr. Justice Bayley in the chair. There were also present:—Hon. Sir Frank Adam, Mr. A. F. Beaufo Major Bisset, Hon. Mr. N. N. Wadia, Messrs. L. R. W. Forrest, F. W. Stevens, E. Wimbridge, Agnew-Turner, J. P. Watson, M. C. Turner, R. S. Campbell, J. H. Steele, E. F. Soundy, Sorabjee Bengallee, K. M. Heeramaneck, Khan Bahadur Murzban, K. N. Kabrajee, and Mr. J. Marshall. The chairman read a letter from Sir Raymond West, regretting that his resignation might be accepted, as he found that owing to press of work he was unable to take part in the duties of the Executive Committee. He next read a letter from the Under-Secretary to Government, giving particulars of the buildings, which were to be illuminated, as follows:—Sailors' Home, west facade; Elphinstone College, east facade; University Lib ary and Clock Tower, east facade; Paper Currency Office, west facade; D. P. W. Offices, north and east facades; Post Office, south and east facades. He further intimated that the High School, not being a Government building, could not be illuminated at Government expense, but if the Committee were prepared to undertake its illumination, Government would be pleased to contribute Rs. 1,000 towards the expense as a special case. The chairman said that the Chamber of Commerce had subscribed Rs 6,100, and that the list altogether now amounted to Rs. 12,275. He thought that subscription should be canvassed for as much as possible to ensure success. Without a big subscription list the success of the work they had undertaken would not be of the character which they hoped it would be. The chairman then proposed that an account should be opened with the Bank of Bombay, that they should be advertised in the papers, and that as sums were received they should be also notified through the columns of the local organs. The chairman then asked if any one knew what measures had been adopted at the Municipal Corporation. Mr. Roughton reported that the meeting had decided, by a majority of 29 to 2, that the sum subscribed by them towards the preparation should be a sum not exceeding Rs. 30,000. They had called another special meeting for next week.

Mr. Murzban said he thought that the Committee should come to something definite. There was not much time left now, and much expense would be saved, if they were to begin preparation at once instead of leaving them till the last moment. The Corporation were ready to work with them. He thought a fair upon the Maidan was one of the most suitable ideas that could be adopted. The poorer classes appreciated that kind of thing above almost everything else. The route which it was proposed the Prince should take was from Church Gate Street Station to the Queen's Statue, thence to the Fair, to Victoria Station, thence to the Apollo Bunder, and by the same route back to Malabar Point, so that the present plan of illuminations would all come within this line of route. Several of the leading merchants, and of the principal institutions along Hornby Road, including Messrs. Ralli Bros. and the Bombay Club had promised to illuminate their premises, so that not much money need be spent upon work there. He suggested that the harbour should be illuminated, but of course this would cost a considerable sum, and its accomplishment all depended upon the funds. The display of fireworks, which was talked of, also depended upon the amount of money they might obtain. He thought it would be well if they decided upon any two of these things now, for they would then know definitely what they had to do. The chairman remarked that at the meeting of the Executive Committee, it had already been decided to hold a fair. Mr. Kabrajee then addressed the meeting, amongst other remarks expressing his disapproval of the scheme, which had been proposed of holding an entertainment in the Victoria Gardens.

Sir Frank Adam proposed that four Committees should be appointed for the management of the fair, the harbour illuminations, the street illuminations, and the fireworks.

The following nameswere decided upon:—

The Fair Committee—Mr. Murzban and Mr. Phipson. The Harbour Illuminations—Sir Henry Morland, Capt. X. Hert, Mr. M. C. Turner, Mr. Ulotb, Mr. John Marshall, and Mr. Fuzlebhai Visram, Street Illuminations—Mr. E. C. K. Ollivant, Mr. R. Walton, Mr. Murzban, Mr. J. P. Watson, Major Bisset, Hon'ble N. N. Wadia, and Mr. Soundy. The Fireworks Committee—Mr. Roughton, Mr. J. Adams, Mr. E. Wimbridge, Mr. Darashaw Chichgar and Mr. Kabrajee.

The proceedings then terminated.

BOMBAY MUNICIPAL CORPORATION.

A SPECIAL meeting of the Corporation was held yesterday at the Municipal offices, Mr. Grattan Geary, the president, being in the chair.

THE MUNICIPAL COMMISSIONER DESIGNATE.

On the motion of Mr. Dosabhoy Framji, seconded by Sir Henry Morland, the Corporation resolved to record the memorandum, dated 1st inst., from the Municipal Commissioner, forwarding Government resolution, dated 28th January 189 , stating that His Excellency the Governor in Council had appointed Mr. H. A. Acworth, C.S., to be Municipal Commissioner for the city of Bombay, with effect from the date on which Mr. E. C. K. Ollivant might lay down his office.

DEPUTY MUNICIPAL COMMISSIONER.

On the motion of Mr. Dosabhoy Framji, seconded by Sir Henry Morland, Mr. Dosabhoy's notice of motion regarding the proposed appointment of Mr. Acworth as Deputy Municipal Commissioner, was allowed precedence.

Mr. Dosabhoy Framji moved, in accordance with his notice of motion, "That, in view of the many water works, drainage and other important Municipal questions that are now pending, involving as they do intricate contract considerations, it is extremely desirable in the interests of the Corporation that Mr. H. A. Acworth, who has been appointed by Government to succeed the present Municipal Commissioner, should have the opportunity of becoming acquainted with them by personal communication with his predecessor; that, for this purpose, Government be requested to lend Mr. Acworth's services to the Corporation in the capacity of Deputy Municipal Commissioner from the 1st March or such other later date as Government may find it convenient to relieve him from his present duties; and that, thing to send Lord Harris a month or two in advance for the purpose of being specially trained regarding them. Lord Cross would send some such reply as the following :—"Dear Lord Reay,—Your suggestion is worth a Jew's eye (laughter); it will have immediate attention, and Lord Harris will be despatched to India by an early mail to undergo the coaching you recommend. Pray regard this communication as strictly confidential.—Yours, &c. Cross." Dr. Blaney then rambled away into a history of Mr. Dosabhoy's career from his early days, and then, arguing that he had done well in all departments with diligence, ability, and integrity, without needing coaching or previous training, urged that Mr. Acworth likewise stood in no need of previous coaching. To ask him to undergo an apprenticeship would be putting a slight upon his capacity.

The Municipal Commissioner said that, however much the matter was personally disagreeable to him, he thought it was a duty which he ought not to shirk. As he was asked to express his opinion in the matter, he would do so before the close of the debate. He has had opportunities of speaking to different councillors before the meeting was held, and they were generally of opinion that the Corporation should readily assent to a proposal such as that placed before them by Mr. Dosabhoy. It seemed to the Commissioner that this proposal was based upon good business principles. He would warn the Corporation to consider and decide the question on its own merits as men of business ought to do, and not to be led astray by any irrelevant remarks such as had been made by some of the speakers at the meeting. It would be an exceedingly good arrangement to engage Mr. Acworth's services two months before he (Mr. Ollivant) laid down charge of his office, in order that the new Commissioner might be able to grasp the important questions that were to come before him. There were, besides, very many delicate negotiations in progress which affected the pecuniary interests of the municipality, the details of which it was very desirable the new Commissioner should be acquainted with. He thought that in view of the many important questions pending consideration, it would certainly be to the advantage of Mr. Acworth and of the Municipality that he should have an opportunity of becoming acquainted with all the details thereof. (Hear, hear.) It was very desirable for these among other reasons that Mr. Acworth should be on the spot, and should have sufficient time given him to familiarise himself with these details. (Hear, hear.) Mr. Ollivant had communicated with Mr. Acworth in the matter, and he agreed with him in thinking that the proposed temporary appointment would be to the advantage of the Municipality. (Applause and hear, hear.)

Mr. Eknath R. Khote was against the proposition.

Mr. Dosabhoy having replied, the proposition was put to the vote and carried by a large majority amidst applause.

PRINCE ALBERT VICTOR'S RECEPTION.

Dr. Blaney proposed that the report of the committee of the Corporation on the subject of the reception to be recorded to H. R. H. Prince Albert Victor, on his arrival in Bombay, which was discussed and passed by the Standing Committee at its last meeting, together with the resolution passed by them, be adopted. The Standing Committee's resolution was to the affect that Rs. 12,500 be paid towards the day fête to be held at the Victoria Gardens; Rs. 3,500 towards the illumination of municipal properties, including the statues and fountains; and Rs. 5,000 towards the public fund. The last amount Dr. Blaney said was very small for the purpose for which it was voted.

Mr. Eknath R. Khote seconded the proposition.

The Municipal Commissioner, premising that he had not had an opportunity of seeing the report until he saw it in the newspapers that morning, asked to be allowed to state his own views for what they might be worth. If the Corporation were prepared to accept the recommendation of the Standing Committee in regard to Rs. 12,500 for the day entertainment at the Victoria Gardens, it seemed to him very desirable that they should also sanction a like amount as their contribution towards the general illuminations, the cost of lighting their own buildings, the statues and fountains being included in that grant. He did not think that a total grant of Rs. 25,000 would be considered a larger sum than what the Corporation might justly be expected to give upon an occasion like this. The day show was expected to yield a good return. He did not wish to tread needlessly upon delicate ground, if there was delicate ground to tread; but he would do so warily. He thought that Mr. Geary, as president of the Corporation, had made a valiant fight for the credit of the Corporation and its chair. (Applause) The general reception committee and other people might hold their own views in the matter, but the fact that certain members of the Corporation did not entertain the views of the body as a whole should, make the latter very indulgent in commenting upon the views of the other side. The views of the Corporation were the views which he (Mr. Ollivant) himself held, namely that the president of the Corporation should have been appointed the chairman of the reception committee. But that was certainly not a reason for anybody to come forward and say that the Corporation should in any way stand aloof in the reception to be accorded to the Prince. (The President Hear hear.) He thought that the Corporation and all loyal citizens would be the first to consider the credit of the city. (Hear, hear.) The fact that the Corporation had been slighted should not weigh with them in passing their grant. Speaking about the illuminations, Mr. Ollivant said that, supposing the general programme was to be carried out, the illumination of the harbour, regarding which the Corporation had been successful in contending that it was within Municipal limits, should not be neglected. It would not become the municipality to say that they should have nothing to do with the harbour. The city should have rejoicings worthy of it, and let it not be said that the Corporation came unworthily out of the business on this occasion. Mr. Ollivant was of opinion that it would redound to the credit of their president that, in standing for the chairmanship of the reception committee, he went through, certainly to his credit, what was at any rate a close fight and an honourable fight, and certainly it was owing to the exertions of their president that the Corporation came out creditably in the fight, the result having been decided by the narrow majority of one vote only. (Applause and hear, heare.)

Mr. A M Dharamsi thought that the grant recommended by the Standing Committee was inadequate for the purpose for which it was voted. It would not be doing credit to a body like their Corporation if they were not to join the public in making the reception as brilliant and as hearty as possible. He quite agreed in thinking with the Municipal Commissioner that their president had made a valiant fight for the chairmanship of the reception committee, and had come out very creditably. A remark had been made that the Corporation did not represent the public of Bombay. If the Corporation, to which representations were sent by the ratepayers, the Justices, the Fellows of the University, and on which sat the representatives of Government and of the Chamber of Commerce, was not a representative body, Mr. Dharamsi would ask what else was such a representative body? (Applause.) He thought, however, that the Corporation should on no account stand aloof from the public movement, or contribute a smaller sum for the reception of the Prince than they would otherwise have voted, under the impression that the public had to some extent disregarded the status of the Corporation. (Hear, hear.)

The President: Not the public. (Hear, hear.)

Mr. Dharmasi said that Rs. 3,500 was not a sufficient sum for effectively illuminating the municipal properties; and that Rs. 5,000 was inadequate to give to the public fund. He proposed an amendment that the Corporation should sanction a grant not exceeding Rs. 30,000, out of which Rs. 12,500 might be used for the fete at the Victoria Gardens, and Rs. 10,000 towards the illumination of municipal properties, the balance of Rs. 8,000 being contributed towards the general fund.

Dr. Blaney said that the Corporation had no power under the Act to increase the grant of the Standing Committee.

Mr. Dharamsi then moved that the matter be referred back to the Standing Committee, with the expression of opinion that the Corporation would be prepared to sanction a grant up to Rs. 30,000.

Mr. Sayani, in seconding the amendment, thought that the Corporation should "join hands" with the general committee. The Corporation had always come out splendidly on such occasions, and they might come out still more splendidly on the present occasion.

Colonel Merewether pointed out the delay that would be caused by referring the matter back to the standing committee, who had already considered the question in all its aspects and had consulted Mr. Walton as to the costs, and he said the amount was sufficient for the illuminations.

Sir Henry Morland did not think there would be any excessive delay in referring the matter back to the standing committee. The sum recommended by the standing committee was far too small; and he thought that the amount to be spent upon the horse and cattle show might be devoted to some other purpose. It would be absurd to show horses and cattle to the Prince, who must have seen the best of them in all parts of the world. But he was in favour of the flower show.

Mr. Duxbury was in favour of the amendment.

Mr. Kabrajee said that he was in favour of an increased grant.

Mr. R. D. Setna thought that the amount proposed by Mr. Dharamsi was needlessly large. The Municipal Commissioner had stated that Rs. 25,000 would be ample.

Dr. Blaney had no doubt that the recommendation to vote more money would receive the best consideration of the standing committee.

Mr. Dharamsi's amendment was carried almost unanimously.

The Corporation then adjourned until Thursday next.

SANITATION AT COLABA CAUSEWAY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—As much sickness is now prevailing in Bombay, especially fever of a somewhat dangerous type, I think it is high time the Port Trustees, who derive a very handsome income from the owners of the houses situated on the Colaba Causeway and those on the Wellington reclamation grounds, took some steps to look after their property more closely in regard to sanitary arrangements, and to complete the roads that are already marked out. The vacant ground at the rear of the Causeway from the Apollo Hotel down to the late Wesleyan Methodist School is strewn with all sorts of rubbish and there are pools of stagnant water here and there. Wherever there is a cesspool, which always overflows, there is a mass of putrid sullage water, and the effluvium is most abominable.

I am told that the Municipality cannot help us out of this state of affairs, and that we must look to the Port Trustees, as the ground belongs to them. The Municipal Inspectors are continually present to look after the sweepers and the drains, and are always ready to listen to complaints and remedy the evil to such extent as lies in their power.—Yours, &c.,

STREET PAVING.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—I read with much interest your remarks on the paving of streets, a subject in which I naturally as an engineer have had to give some attention.

My brother Mr. Henry Arthur has spent much money and time in the investigation of the practical application of residual products of coal tar.

He found that the heavy oils wich we engineers always specified should be excluded from Creosote as far as possibly were the best for preserving it, and that creosote ran in time out of the wood, the heavy oils alone remaining.

He took out a patent for this. The Post Office at Home are using it for telegraph posts, and all the trials made have been uniformly successful.

I saw how useful it would be for wood pavement and recommended him to get it put down in London.

It has been down now over two years in Kensington and Westminster and the Surveyor to the vestry of Kensington says that it is second to none. Wood treated with naphaline is cheap compared with creosoted wood, is clean to handle, and makes common white pine as hard as teak.

Napthaline is one of the best disinfectants known, and as the wood is thoroughly saturated with a solid substance which only melts at 180° Far. it combines the cleanlines and wear of asphalte with the adhesion of wood.—Yours, &c.,

THE KONKANI LANGUAGE.

A CORRESPONDENT writes to us from Goa:—The Government in Lisbon have awakened rather late in the day to the claims of the Konkani Language, which is the vernacular of the people of this country, as well as of the coasting villages from Vingorla to Mangalore. When the Portuguese first conquered Goa, Konkani was one of the official languages. The conquerors of that time were earnest men, and the change they wished to impose upon the people was thorough in every respect. As Hinduism and the native dhotur were made to give way to Christianity and European dress, so the Konkani was altogether discarded in Government Departments. While the vernacular languages, under the care of the British Government, have been progressing so rapidly, the Konkani, under that fatal proscriptions, has been degenerating into an uncouth dialect. So that, as it is at present spoken, it is a mixture of several languages, and has lost its character as well as its literature. Attempts have occasionally been made by individuals to revive the language, but they have failed completely; for it was impossible to expect success from desultory trials without system and perseverance. It is therefore with great pleasure that the ministerial announcement has been received of the appointment of the Baron of Cumbarguva, who has been entrusted with the task. This gentleman while here has made special study of kindred languages; and when he was elected a deputy to represent Salsette on the previous occasion he continued his labours in Lisbon, printing a primer in Devanagri characters in Bombay. The Lisbon Government have charged the Baron to compile and print reading books for schools, a Konkani grammar, a Konkani-Portuguese and Portuguese-Konkani dictionary, and such works in the Konkani language as have literary merits. The Baron of Cumbarguva will receive a Government subsidy of one canto per annum, besides a free passage to India and back when the nature of the work may necessitate a visit to this country.

THE BURGLARY AT CURRY ROAD.

YESTERDAY at the Girgaum Police Court, Inspector McCubbin brought up on remand and charged Gunnoo Wittoo, Gunput Dhondoo, and Ballu Bheema, mill-hands, before Mr. P. Ryan. Gunoo Wittoo with house-breaking and theft of gold and silver ornaments and cash, of the collective value of Rs. 988, the property of Shewpall Chutta from his residence in a room of a chawl at Curry Road on the 31st January last; and accused Gunpat Dhondoo, and Ballu Bheema with receiving the said property, knowing the same to have been stolen. It appears the complainant on the morning in question left his room open, and went out to have a bath before going to work, during which time accused No.1 Gunnoo Withoo, who is a neighbour of complainant's and living in the same chawl concealed himself in complainant's room. The complainant on returning to his room locked the the door and left for his work. During his absence Gunnoo Wittoo by means of an adze broke open complainant's boxes, and stealing the ornaments and cash, let himself out by drawing the hatch on the back door. The other two accused, who are also the neighbours of complainant's living in the same chawl, remaining outside, watching the movements of Gunnoo Wittoo. Immediately Gunnoo Wittoo came out of the room with the stolen articles. The three accused shared the booty, Gunnoo taking the lion's share, after which the three accused buried certain portions of the stolen ornaments each in their respective rooms, and also pledged certain portions of the ornaments to Marwarrees at Mahim, Dhobie Talao, and Mandvi. The complainant on his return home found his room had been broken into, and all his valuables stolen and at once reported the matter to the police, who upon enquiry could gain no trace of the property or the perpetrators of the deed. On the 19th instant Inspector McCubbin received certain information regarding a gold ring belonging to complainant being pledged by Gunnoo Wittoo to a Marwarree at Sooparee Bang. The police officer arrested Gunnoo Wittoo, who subsequently upon further enquiries confessed the theft, which led to the arrest of the other two accused, Gunput Dhondoo and Ballu Bheema, and the recovery of the whole of the gold and silver ornaments from the several Marwarrees, with whom they had been pledged, and also from the places where some had been concealed the remainder of the stolen articles. The three accused were convicted, Gunnoo Vittoo was sentenced to six months' rigorous imprisonment, and Gunput Dhondoo and Ballu Bheema to four months' similar imprisonment.

THE SITUATION IN EUROPE.

A FRANCO-GERMAN ALLIANCE.

THROUGH the columns of the North German Gazette the Foreign Office, or rather the Chancellor himself has thought fit to reply to Col. Stoffel's pamphlet on the possibility of a Franco-German alliance. In the first place, the writer denies the statement of Col. Stoffel, founded on a conversation which the latter had with the Chancellor in 1868, that the then Crown Prince was passionately opposed to the conclusion of peace after Koniggratz. On the contrary, it was the Crown Prince who alone, in opposition to the King and the rest of his counsellors, supported Prince Bismarck in his policy of bringing the war to a close. Then the official writer continues:—"Col. de Stoffel thinks it was a mistake on our part that, in making peace with France, we imposed other and harder conditions than in the case of Austria. But Col. Stoffel, in a manner characteristically French, overlooks the difference between the relations of Germany to Austria and to France. In the case of the latter Power mercy would have served no good purpose after we had won battles. Every schoolboy knows from his first history-book that Germany has been exposed for centuries to the most wanton attacks on the part of her Gallic neighbour. M. de Stoffel himself speaks of uninterrupted struggles between France and Germany for twenty-five centuries. It is, at least, the fact that during the last three centuries Germany has had to endure about a score of French attacks, which in every case were begun by France. By means of this reference M. de Stoffel refutes his own assertion that it was a mistake after Sedan not to re-establish in integrum the old (territorial) relations between France and Germany—i.e., not as they existed up to 1648, but as they existed in July 1870. It is not probable that, in the centuries ahead, France's neighbours will enjoy more immunity from her attacks than in the past, and the only remedy is military security. To achieve this it was necessary for us to push forward our frontier to the Vosges, in order the better to fend off French attacks. It is true that this improvement in our line of defence aimed less at covering Berlin than South Germany. From Strasburg and the salient angle at Weissenburg French troops, always held in readiness thereabout, could inundate Baden and Wurtemberg before our German forces in sufficient number could be on the

PURE PERSONALITIES.

Sir Edwin Arnold was delighted to see Walt Whitman. "I think he is the handsomest old man I ever saw," he says, "with the head of Jupiter and strength in every feature. I had a pleasant interview, sitting for a long time face to face, with his hand on my knee and my hand on his. I am more than ever convinced that he is one of the greatest of American writers. His poetry is wonderful. Prudish people, I know, object to some of it, but there is nothing impure in it. It is the expression of a simple child of nature. I am very glad to have seen him." Sir Edwin says that he has translated the aged poet's ode to death, beginning, than which "nothing was more musical, graceful, and charming," into many European and Asiatic tongues.

"Come lovely and soothing death,"

The Empress of Austria is said to be the best royal housekeeper in Europe. She superintends the household affairs of the big palace at the Austrian capital with the greatest care. She receives personally, reads and acts upon reports from cooks, butlers, keepers of the plate and keepers of the linen. Cooking devices which have become inconvenient or antiquated are abolished only as her command. New methods of preparing or serving food are adopted only at her suggestion. Changes in the personnel of the establishment are made for the most part only in obedience to her orders. Consequently a person can eat, drink, sleep, and be served better in her house than in any in Europe.

Among the inmates of Bellevue Hospital, in New York, is the bearer of one of the most ancient and famous names in Prussia; a member of a family which centuries ago was the equal in rank and birth of the Hohenzollerns. He is Baron Robert von Puttkamer, the son, according to his apparently well-founded statements, of Minister von Puttkamer, for many years Secretary of the Interior under the Old Emperor William, and cousin of the Princess Bismarck. The scion of this house, who now lies at the point of death in Belle vue, wearing upon his breast the Iron Cross, the highest insignia of valor in the gift of the Prussian King, has had a career full of interest and adventure. Shortly before the outbreak of the Franco-Prussian war he entered the Kaiser Franz Regiment in Potsdam, one of the gardu-de-corps, which is officered by noblemen alone. He fought at the terrible battle of Gravelotte, but escaped. He was not so fortunate in the night attack upon Fourget, but he so distinguished himself in the face of the enemy that he was gazetted a lieutenant, and was decorated with the Order of the Iron Cross at the hands of the King.

A duel with a comrade, he says, in which his antagonist fell, was the cause of his departure from the Fatherland. He went to Mexico and took service in the 13th battalion, with the rank of captain. Tiring of that, he sailed for Rio Janeiro in 1879. After spending a short time in the Brazilian capital he accepted a commission of captain of marines under Admiral Grau in the Peruvian navy. His love of adventure was soon gratified by the declaration of war between Chili and Peru. He joined the land forces under General Carceras, and was soon transferred to the foreign legion. He distinguished himself again at the bloody battle of Las Casas de los Reis where he received a bullet in the breast, and he was captured by the Chilians and taken as a prisoner to Valparaiso. At the close of the war he was allowed to return to Lima. He soon shipped for San Francisco, where he arrived without money in 1891, and took the situation of a common sailor on an Arctic whaler. He spent several years cruising in the northern seas, after which he returned to San Francisco. He next sailed from that city as steward on the ship Ivy, and arrived in New York about ten days ago. Soon after his arrival he was attacked with the influenza, and was removed to the hospital, where he is not expected to live.

A notable thing about Sir Vincent Barrington-Kennett-Barrington is the tongue-tangle which his changes of name have caused among his friends. First he was "Barrington-Kennett, and next "Kennett-Barrington," and it is hardly a matter of surprise that he should not infrequently and quite innocently be addressed as "Barrett-Kennington." He was knighted for his services to the sick and wounded during the Franco-German, Carlist, and other wars, says the World.

Lord Stanley of Preston is an inveterate cigarrette smoker. Canadians have followed his example to such an extent that the production of the fashionable little fumigant has trebled in the last two years. In 1889 it was represented by no less a sum than 22,705,660 dols. This does not include the enormous number imported from abroad.

Lieutenant Lynch-Blosse, of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Regiment, the correspondent in the Torpichen divorce case (says the Hawk), had quite lately been promoted from the ranks, and was considered a very promising officer. He has now been superseded, and Torpichen, who is an old Army man, is well known north of the Tweed, where the Sandilands are esteemed as a branch of the house of Douglas and the owners of a three-century-old peerage, which, by the way, was conferred by the fair Mary Stuart herself.

Here is a story about Mr. Chamberlain given on the authority of the Star. He was dining, and abusing his opponents. He suddenly broke into an attack on the provincial press for saying that he was fond of duchesses. "Why," said Mr. Chamberlain, fixing a very famous journalist with his glittering eye (glass), "I never knew a duchess." Unfortunately, a charming lady, who is also a wag, heard the remark and joined the conversation. "Oh! but Mr. Chamberlain," she said, "I know a duchess who is dying to be introduced to you, and who as soon as she knew you were going to lunch at Lady A's, entreated to be asked, too." Mr. Chamberlain's features visibly relaxed, and he showed as much ingenuous curiosity as became the gravity of statesmanship. "Really," he said, "I cannot imagine who the lady can be." "Oh! it was the Duchess of Montrose", was the reply. And then people smiled and examined their plates.

Now that Justice Manisty is gone, Justice Hawkins will lose some of his favourite sport. Two judges more dissimilar in character could not be discovered, and that is perhaps why the two were such excellent friends. Justice Manisty was always painfully precise, and his language had an almost Puritan reserve about it. Justice Hawkins is more slapdash and very exuberant in language. His one delight when in the company of his learned brother was to shock him. Once, at all events, he succeeded. Justice Manisty and he were attending an assize service in the Cathedral, to which Sir Henry Manisty listened with the deepest attention, while Sir Henry Hawkins's mind was running on racing. The sermon over and the Benediction pronounced, Justice Hawkins rose, and taking Justice Manisty by the arm, cried out, "Come along, brother; the flag's down."

The heiress of the late Mr Talbot, M. P., Miss Talbot of Margam, a lady of fragile figure and of amiability and beneficence, of whom it may be said that she has passed her first youth, is now the richest woman in Wales, and one of the richest in the world. People who know the Margam estate, who are acquainted with the immense mineral wealth which underlies it, appear inclined, on the assumption that that wealth could be realised, to place at very much more than two millions sterling the value of that property.

Mr. Talbot was not only a director of the Great Western Railway, but also a most judicious and careful investor in railway stocks. He had perhaps the most comfortable yacht afloat, and one of the largest. This vessel, the Lynx, was of about 600 tons, and was constructed for a dispatch boat of the Peninsular and Oriental service. She was not very fast, but Mr. Talbot delighted to cruise in her from port to port in the West of England and to direct the progress of Great Western Railway works, so continuing his duties as a director with his pleasure as a yachting man. Mr. W. S. Gilbert, the dramatist, writes in the small hours of the morning, beginning work at midnight, and often keeping on till after the sun has risen. Like many literary men, his vein of composition will not flow by day, requiring candlelight to stir it into activity. In preparing a libretto he goes slowly but surely. Hitting upon one of his characteristic ideas, he turns it over in his mind during many long walks and solitary cogitations, adding circumstances and incidents as they occur to him. Then he makes a rough skeleton sketch of the plot, which he puts away. A few weeks later this skeleton is carefully written out in extenso, with such additions and improvements as may have occurred to him meanwhile.

This, too, is shelved for a while, but ultimately the perfect framework is made, which now only needs—if such an expression is allowable—the wedding to it of the dialogue and the songs. It is at this stage that Sir Arthur Sullivan comes upon the scene, for the writer has to keep the musician's needs in view, and the composer must bear the writer in mind. The writing of one of their famous operas entails much labour and endless consultation upon the collaborators. Playwright and composer often see the morning come in at the windows while they sit over cigars and cigarettes, discussing with the most anxious care, points which to others might seem of little moment. But it is to this untiring industry and care that they owe much of their success.

To R. MATHEWS & COMPANY.

This is to certify that I have carefully Analysed a sample of the "CARLTON WHISKEY." I find it to be a very old and pure Spirit, perfectly free from Fusil Oil, or any other deleterious substance. In my opinion this Whisky is of a very high character.

Berner's College, London. EDWARD V. GARDNER, F.A.S., M.S.A., Professor of Chemistry.

CAUTION.—It has come to the knowledge of the Shippers of the "CARLTON" WHISKEYS, that the empty Bottles have been dishonestly refilled with the poisonous trash very often sold in India under the name of Whiskey, this is therefore to caution consumers to CAREFULLY EXAMINE the CORKS and CAPSULES to see they have not been tampered with; also that the Corks, Capsules and Labels are branded with their Trade Mark.

IMPORTANT TO ALL.

ENO'S "FRUIT SALT"
is absolutely necessary for the preservation of Health.

YOU cannot overstate its great value in keeping the BLOOD PURE; as a means of keeping the system clear, and thus taking away the groundwork of Malarious Diseases, BLOOD POISONS, and all Liver Complaints, or as a HEALTH-GIVING, REFRESHING, COOLING, and INVIGORATING BEVERAGE, or as a gentle Laxative or Tonic in the various forms of Indigestion ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" is invaluable.

IT IS THE BEST PREVENTIVE AND CURE FOR

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Biliousness. | Sick Headache. | Unnatural Excitement. |
| Mental Depression. | Giddiness. | Errors in Diet. |
| Skin Eruptions. | Liver Derangements. | Thirst, &c. |
| Constipation. | Feverishness. | Impure Blood. |

A SPARKLING AND REFRESHING DRAUGHT.—Notwithstanding its medicinal value, the "FRUIT SALT" must be looked upon as essential as breathing fresh air, or as a simple and safe beverage under ALL CIRCUMSTANCES, and may be taken as a sparkling and refreshing draught in the same way as Lemonade, Soda Water, Potass Water, &c., only it is much cheaper and BETTER, IN EVERY SENSE OF THE TERM, TO AN UNLIMITED EXTENT.

HEALTHY BILE.—When the liver is not making healthy bile, or insufficient quantity, the blood becomes impure—the groundwork of disease, and produces constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, headache, &c. ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" is the best remedy.

ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" versus BRANDY.—"There were a few attacks of mild dysentery, brought mainly on by ill-considered devotion to brandy, or biliousness produced by the same cause. For the latter we used ENO'S 'FRUIT SALT,' which is simply invaluable."—Coral Lands, Vol. I.

HOT COUNTRIES.—ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, &c.—"I have personally used ENO'S 'FRUIT SALT,' and know it not alone to be excellent, but really invaluable. Especially must this be the case in the hot countries of the East, where Acidity of the Stomach, Biliousness, and Fevers are so common."—J. M. PEEBLES, M.D., Author of Around the World, Travels in Polynesia, China, India, Arabia, Egypt, &c., &c.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS.—"A new invention is brought before the public, and commands success. A score of abominable imitations are immediately introduced by the unscrupulous, who, in copying the original closely enough to deceive the public, and yet not so exactly as to infringe upon legal rights, exercise an ingenuity that, employed in an original channel, could not fail to secure reputation and profit."—ADAMS.

CAUTION.—Legal Rights are protected in every civilised country. Examine each bottle and see that the Capsule is marked ENO'S "FRUIT SALT." Without it you have been imposed on by a WORTHLESS IMITATION. Sold by all Chemists, &c. Prepared only at ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" WORKS, Pomeroy St., London, S.E., by J. C. ENO'S Patent.

LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL
THE PUREST. THE MOST PALATABLE. THE MOST DIGESTIBLE. THE MOST EFFICACIOUS.
Incontestably proved by Thirty Years' Medical Experience to be
The only Cod Liver Oil which produces the full curative effects in CONSUMPTION AND DISEASES OF THE CHEST, THROAT AFFECTIONS, GENERAL DEBILITY, DISEASES OF THE SKIN, WASTING DISEASES OF CHILDREN, RICKETS, AND ALL SCROFULOUS DISORDERS.

SELECT MEDICAL OPINIONS.

SIR G. DUNCAN GIBB, Bart., M.D.,
Physician to the Westminster Hospital.
"The value of DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL as a therapeutic agent in a number of diseases, chiefly of an exhaustive character, has been admitted by the world of medicine; but, in addition, I have found it a remedy of great power in the treatment of many Affections of the Throat and Larynx, especially in Consumption of the latter, where it will sustain life when everything else fails."

DR. SINCLAIR COGHILL,
Physician to the Royal National Hospital for Consumption, Ventnor.
"I have convinced myself that in Tubercular and the various forms of Strumous Disease, DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL possesses greater therapeutic efficacy than any other Cod Liver Oil with which I am acquainted. It was especially noted, in a large number of cases in which the patients protested they had never been able to retain or digest other Cod Liver Oil, that DR. DE JONGH'S OIL was not only tolerated, but taken readily, and with marked benefit."

JOSEPH J. POPE, Esq., M.R.C.S.,
Late Staff Surgeon, Army, Professor of Hygiene, Birkbeck Institution, London.
"I found during my Indian experience that the worth and character of DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL remained unchanged by tropical heat or foreign climate, and it was, from its uniformity of character, particularly adapted for long-continued administration. The value of "hydro-carbons" in all debilitated states of the system is now becoming thoroughly recognized; and it is, without doubt, from the animal oils and fats, rather than from their vegetable substitutes, that we may hope to derive the surest benefit. The Oil of DR. DE JONGH places in everyone's reach a reliable and valuable remedy, one that cannot be too widely recognized."

DR. R. G. CROFT,
Author of "Handbook for the Nursery."
"DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL is almost a specific in many of the Diseases peculiar to Infancy and Childhood, and I have seen marked benefit produced by its use. Patients prefer it to the Pale Oils, and are able to retain it more comfortably."

DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL is supplied ONLY in IMPERIAL Half-Pints, Pints and Quarts, sealed with BETTS'S Patent Capsule impressed on the top with DR. DE JONGH'S Stamp, and on the side with his Signature, and the Signature of ANSAR, HARFORD & Co.; and bearing under the wrapper a Label with the same Stamp and Signatures.
